

WOULD YOU LIKE TO BE PART OF A GLOBAL NETWORK OF PEOPLE FOCUSED ON A BETTER FUTURE?

Members of IAIA believe that impact assessment is a practical tool for helping meet today's needs without compromising the opportunities of future generations.

Impact assessments evaluate potential consequences to:

■ Environment ■ Society ■ Health

IAIA is the only international organization devoted to improving and promoting the use of impact assessment to make wise decisions about the environmental, health, economic and social consequences of policies, plans and projects.

Not heavily involved in impact assessment but still want to keep your finger on the pulse of impact assessment? Become an associate member at a discount rate and still receive great benefits. Several membership options are available.

If doing something practical today for a better tomorrow interests you, then be part of this network. Join IAIA today!
